

Revocation of Weapons of Mass Destruction Proliferators Sanctions Regulations General License No. 7

Effective 12:01 AM Eastern Standard Time, January 19, 2013, the Office of Foreign Assets Control (OFAC) has revoked General License No. 7 issued pursuant to the Weapons of Mass Destruction Proliferators Sanctions Regulations, 31 C.F.R. Part 544, and the Iranian Transactions and Sanctions Regulations, 31 C.F.R. Part 560, which authorized certain transactions related to the arrest, detention, and judicial sale of the MV Amina (f.k.a. Shere, a.k.a. Iran Tabas, IMO No. 9305192), a vessel on OFAC's List of Specially Designated Nationals and Blocked Persons. Accordingly, any such transactions are no longer authorized by OFAC.

To request a specific license for transactions that relate to the activities that were authorized by this general license and that occur after the effective date of the revocation General License No. 7, please send requests to the attention of the Licensing Division at the Office of Foreign Assets Control, U.S. Department of the Treasury, 1500 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW-Annex, Washington, DC, 20220.

The MV Amina remains on the List of Specially Designated Nationals and Blocked Persons where it is identified as blocked property, and all prohibitions with respect to the vessel remain in effect.
